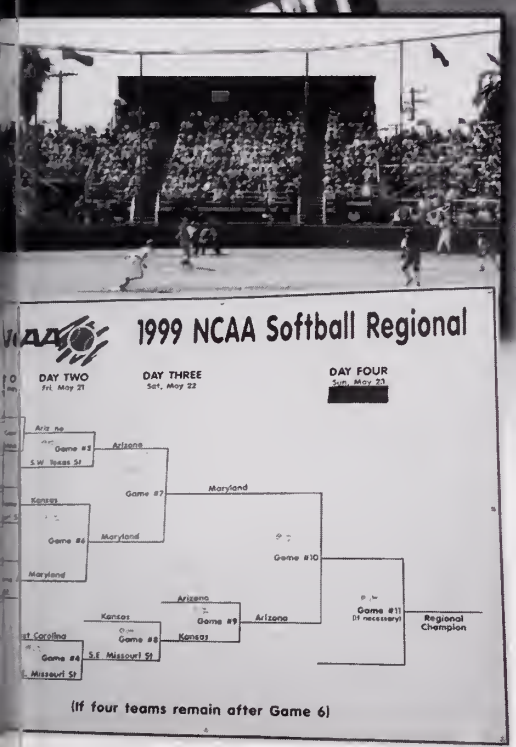
A WINNING TRADITION

ACC Champions

In 1997, the Terrapins won a share of the ACC Tournament title in only the third season of Maryland softball.



ALL-AMERICANS

Kelly Shipman

Terp pitching sensation Kelly Shipman had the nation's second-lowest ERA in 1996 (0.51). In 1997, she was named MVP of the ACC Tournament. Shipman won a school record 32 games in 1999 and earned All-America honors.

A WINNING TRADITION

NCAA Tournament

The 1999 Terps made the first NCAA appearance in the history of Maryland softball and came within one victory of the Women's College World Series.

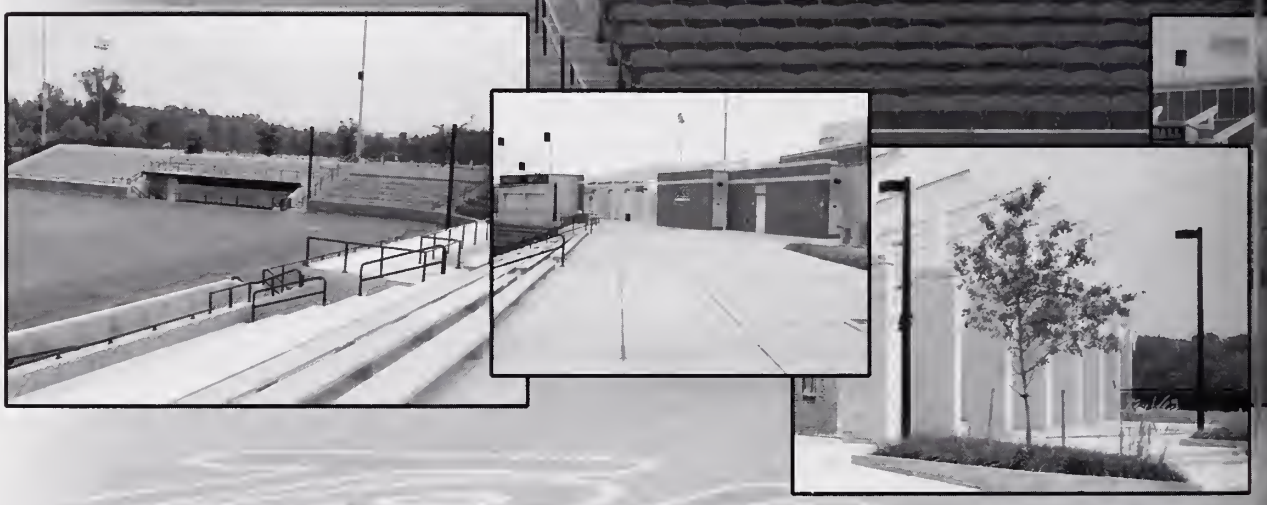
FIELD OF DREAMS



COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

The University of Maryland completed a $3.0 million softball complex in Spring of 2002. The facility is the latest improvement to a Maryland athletics program that already ranks among the top 10 institutions in the nation for female athletes, according to the 2001 fall issue of Sports Illustrated For Women.

Located adjacent to Maryland's state-of-the-art Comcast Center on the north side of campus, student-athletes have access to locker room and weight training facilities, athletic department offices and the academic support and career development unit.

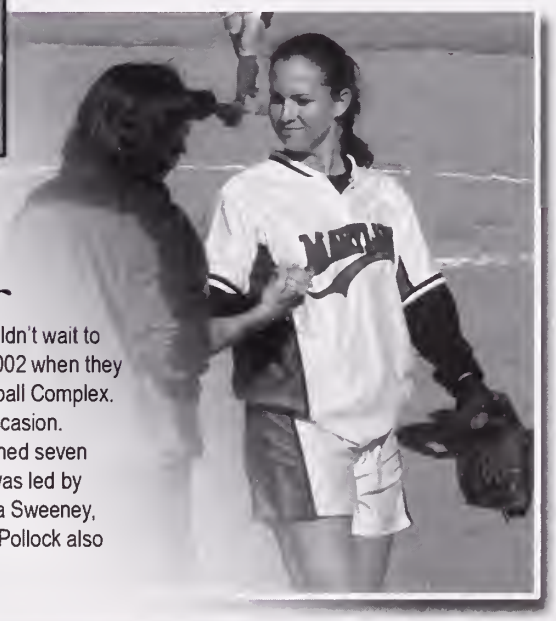
FACILITY AMENITIES

- Stadium seating for more than 1,000 fans
- Underground dugouts with restrooms
- Two bullpen areas
- Four batting cages
- Light towers
- Concessions area
- Ticket booth
- Press box
- Natural Bermuda grass outfield
- Electronic scoreboard
- Ample parking

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING...

"We are committed to providing the best possible resources for all of our athletics programs, and the new softball complex will be one of the finest in the country."
— Deborah A. Yow, Director of Athletics

"The new complex will help us stay competitive in both the conference and the nation. It is an exciting time to be a part of the Maryland softball program."
— Gina LaMandre, Maryland Head Softball Coach



THE FIRST GAME

Bettker Tosses No-Hitter

After playing the majority of its season on the road, the Maryland softball team couldn't wait to take the field in College Park. The players' dreams finally came true on April 10, 2002 when they played the opening game against local rival Towson at the $3 million Terrapin Softball Complex. The stadium's many amenities were not all that the fans marveled about on this occasion. Amanda Bettker, who owns Maryland's second-best career ERA and win total, fanned seven Tiger batters en route to her first complete game no-hitter. The Maryland offense was led by Jen Peel, who drove in three runs on a double to left field. Center fielder Samantha Sweeney, left fielder Casey Leiter, designated hitter Monica Cyphert and right fielder Lauren Pollock also joined the Terps' hit parade and solidified a 7-0 victory.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Terps return key veterans, welcome exciting newcomers

The Terrapin softball team opens the 2005 season with a clear goal: to return to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference. That quest will be taken on by versatile upperclassmen and energetic newcomers, by an elite coach and by the closely knit group that makes up the entire program.

Maryland is coming off a 33-27 season and a fourth-place finish at the conference tournament. Last season saw numerous individual and team accolades, the program and head coach Gina LaMandre's 300th victory and success with a demanding schedule, but the 2005 season brings with it even more excitement and determination to find continued success.

In The Pitcher's Circle

The Terps' pitching rotation will again be a strong suit for LaMandre's squad. Senior Jessica Aditays will be expected to take charge after ending the 2004 season strong and continuing to work hard in fall workouts. Aditays has already made her mark in Maryland's record books, as she returns for her senior campaign fifth on Maryland's all-time wins list (29) and fourth in strikeouts (271). The versatile hurler already has a perfect game on her resume (May 1, 2003 vs. UMES) and set new career-highs last season with 139 strikeouts and 13 wins.

"Jessica is ready to see a lot of time on the mound this year," LaMandre says. "She had a great fall and we are expecting big things from her, including really taking charge when she's in the circle."

Jessica Aditays

New to the program in 2005 is junior Crystal Crews, who comes to Maryland after playing for Indian River Community College in Fort Pierce, Fla. Crews is expected to make an immediate impact for the Terrapins' pitching staff and also possesses power at the plate. She maintained a 0.88 ERA while pitching for Indian River in 2004 and was named the Southern Conference's Pitcher of the Year after striking out 153 batters in 127 innings. Crews was a double threat for Indian River, as she also put together a fantastic offensive season, hitting .411 with six home runs and 43 RBI.

"We brought Crystal in to be an impact player. She's a fantastic pitcher with a ton of experience at a very good community college," LaMandre says. "She's also a very good hitter."

Sophomore Elyse Lucas is also expected to see more time in the circle after a strong rookie year last season. The smart pitcher already has her first complete game victory and combined no-hitter under her belt, and will look to build on her 3-1 record and 43 strikeouts from a season ago.

"Elyse will see significantly more playing time this season," LaMandre says. "She looked extremely good in our fall workouts and we are expecting her to put out the same effort on the mound as well."

Also expected to see time in the rotation is newcomer Abbey Welch, a transfer from Longwood University. Welch is an extremely versatile player who could see time in the circle, as well as in the infield or outfield. "We are very pleased to have Abbey join the Maryland softball program and look for her to see significant time," LaMandre says.

Behind the Plate

Rachel Greyson and Nikki Smith are expected to share time behind the plate, as Greyson saw significant time at the position last season and Smith comes to Maryland with junior college experience.

Greyson helped bolster the Terp offense with 13 RBI and 24 hits in 2004 while maintaining a .994 fielding percentage. That fielding percentage was tops on the squad and Greyson will look to build on that solid season.

Smith joins the program from Indian River Community College in Fort Pierce, Fla. A teammate of fellow newcomer Crystal Crews, Smith batted .336 with 10 doubles and 24 RBI as a member of the 2004 All-Southern Conference team.

"Nikki brings a bat and a strong throwing arm behind the plate," LaMandre says. "Even though she and Crystal are newcomers to the program, they bring with them a lot of experience."

Around the Horn

The Maryland infield is a combination of veteran leaders and a pair of sophomores that put together two of the best seasons in Maryland softball history. Senior leaders Crystal Rizzuto and Nneka Cardoza anchor the left side of the infield, as Rizzuto has been a two-year starter at third base and Cardoza settled in at shortstop in '04.

Rizzuto is a two-time ACC All-Tournament team selection and one of three Terps to start every game last season. Known for her solid defensive play, Rizzuto also led the team and ranked eighth in the ACC with her .329 batting average and tallied a team-high 14 multi-hit games.

"The left side of the field, defensively, is our experience. Crystal's done a great job of being a leader," LaMandre says.

At shortstop, Cardoza made the transition from second base last season and was a bright spot in the Terrapin lineup. "Nneka has done a great job of being our team leader this fall and she will continue in that role as the season begins," LaMandre says.

Cardoza's career batting average of .292 is among the program's elite, and she led the squad and was ranked sixth in the ACC with a .429 on-base percentage in '04. The versatile athlete stole a team-high 10 bases and put together 12 multi-hit games.

On the right side of the infield are two exciting sophomores who made their mark on the softball program in just their first seasons with the Terps. Lindsay Klein returns after starting every game at first base last year. She finished the year with a team-high tying six home runs and 36 RBI and has continued to hit the ball extremely well in fall workouts, according to LaMandre.

Keri Lounge, meanwhile, was an All-ACC and ACC All-Tournament selection in her first season at second base and was one of the team's top hitters. The sophomore had a rookie season in which she led the team and was among conference leaders in in hits (57), doubles (15) and slugging percentage (.514) and tied for the team lead (with classmate Klein) in home runs and RBI.

In the Outfield

The outfield positions will remain solid as the Terps combine experience and talent at all three positions. Crystal Tweedy was one of three players to start every game and will start in left field again. The senior has improved each year in the program and provides the Terps with a combination of speed (six stolen bases in 2004), solid defense and a strong offense.

Lauren Pollock, also a senior, will again start in right field after a successful junior campaign. She started 54 games, drove in 11 runs and posted nine multi-hit games in 2004, and returned from a late-season injury to have strong fall and winter workouts.

Natalie Grossman returns with experience in both left and center field and started 55 games last season. LaMandre calls her one of the top defensive outfielders on the squad, and she also contributed 21 hits to the Terps' offensive arsenal.

Freshman Jenny Belak, who has shown great speed and a strong arm, will vie for time in the outfield as well as sophomore Abbey Welch, who has shown good judgment and athleticism. Freshman Meghan Booth will also add depth to the outfield positions.

The Schedule

The Terrapins' 2005 schedule is highlighted by being selected to host the ACC Softball Tournament from May 12-15. The Terrapin Softball Complex, now in its third full season as the home of the Terps, will provide an outstanding facility for the conference tournament.

Nearly three months before hosting the conference championships, the Terps open their season at tournaments hosted by Alabama and Georgia. In its first two weekends of play, Maryland will face two teams ranked in the preseason USA Today/NFCA Top 25 poll in the Crimson Tide and Bulldogs.

In Tuscaloosa, Ala., the Terps will also take on Penn State and Missouri in addition to the host Crimson Tide, while they will face UNC Greensboro, Radford and Oakland and host Georgia in Athens, Ga.

The Terps have their first home doubleheader against Maryland-Eastern Shore on March 9 before heading to the Florida State Invitational, where they will play Georgia State, Southern Illinois, Florida A&M and Troy State.

The Maryland Invitational, played March 19-20 at the Terrapin Softball Complex, features in-state foe Mount St. Mary's, along with non-conference opponents Binghamton and Columbia.

The Terps spend spring break in southern Virginia playing Radford on March 24. From there, they face new ACC opponent Virginia Tech and get their first taste of the new three-game series format. The teams will play a doubleheader on Sat., March 26, then a final game on Sun., March 27.

The challenging ACC schedule continues with a homestand against NC State, which the Terps follow up by stepping out of league play to host Delaware State on April 6.

ACC series at Virginia and Florida State come next, followed by home matchups with North Carolina and Georgia Tech. Non-conference foes Towson, Delaware and George Mason are also on the schedule before the ACC Tournament begins on May 12.

"It's an exciting time for the ACC, which went to a three-game format," LaMandre says. "We'll face top 20 teams regularly throughout the season, and our home stretch from late April to early May will prepare us for hosting the conference tournament."

Analysis

With what head coach Gina LaMandre calls some of the best senior leadership she's seen in her time at Maryland and the addition of energetic new personalities, Maryland looks to take the accomplishments of last season and continue to build a tradition of success.

HEAD COACH GINA LaMANDRE

11th season at Maryland • Trenton State '86

When head coach Gina LaMandre was hired in 1995 to construct Maryland softball "from the ground up," it was her intent to build a first-class program. Now entering her 11th season, LaMandre has certainly achieved that goal, establishing the Terrapins as a force in the collegiate softball world.

This season, LaMandre's Terrapins add seven talented newcomers to the strong core from last year's 33-27 team. Eight starters return from a 2004 squad that finished fourth at the ACC Tournament and earned the program's 300th win. With veteran players starting at key positions and an impressive corps of rookies taking over roles, LaMandre expects her hardworking 2005 squad to adjust quickly.

In 1999 -- only the fifth season of the team's existence -- LaMandre guided the Terrapins a school-record 51 wins, garnering the school's first invitation to the NCAA Tournament and riding the wave of success all the way to the Region 2 final game.

LaMandre's effort was rewarded as she was named ACC Coach of the Year for the first time in her career. LaMandre and assistant coach Rachel Lawson were tabbed NFCA Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year, marking the third time LaMandre was honored with that distinction.

The 1999 Terrapins experienced the most prolific season to date, making the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance and finishing the season ranked No. 12 in the nation. This ranking was the team's first top 25 citation in the program's short history. The Terrapins set a number of team records that season, including victories (51), at bats (1,940), hits (507), runs (316), doubles (88), home runs (39), RBI (277) and walks (205). Seven different Terps were singled out for postseason honors that year.

In the program's fourth season, the 1998 squad finished 28-22, posting a .560 winning percentage. Strides were made in conference play as well, as the Terrapins were also able to mark a 4-4 record against ACC opponents.

In 1997, the Terrapins took a tremendous step toward becoming a recognizable program. The Terps, in only their third year of existence, captured a share of the 1997 Atlantic Coast Conference championship with defending champion Florida State. Maryland finished the regular season at 26-23, and used a 3-1 ACC Tournament mark to claim a share of the title. LaMandre was rewarded by her peers for the second straight season, as the NFCA Coach of the Year for the Mid-Atlantic Region.

When LaMandre began her assault on constructing the Maryland program, she was handed a roster that included 16 underclassmen, and no aid of athletic scholarships. Despite the shortcomings, Maryland finished its inaugural Division I campaign with a 15-33 record.

The second season under LaMandre was even more promising. The Terrapins improved from their modest beginnings to a 33-24-1 mark in 1996. The Maryland pitching staff combined for a national-best 0.82 ERA, with then-freshman Kelly Shipman posting the second-best ERA in the nation (0.51). The efforts paid off in the end with LaMandre garnering NFCA Coach of the Year accolades, and Shipman earning ACC Rookie of the Year honors.

Bigger steps followed with the ACC Tournament run in 1997, followed by a third straight winning season in 1998.

Prior to her arrival in College Park, LaMandre was an assistant coach a Massachusetts for eight seasons. Her primary responsibilities included developing the pitching staff and recruiting student-athletes. During her time with the Minutewomen, the mentor also earned a master's degree in exercise physiology.

LaMandre's involvement in softball dates to her playing days at Trenton State (now the College of New Jersey) where she was a two-time All-America pitche in 1984 and 1985, and was named Trenton State's Female Athlete of the Year ir 1985. She helped lead Trenton State to a national championship and went on to serve as pitching coach and strength and conditioning coach for one year before taking a job as an assistant coach at Massachusetts.

LaMandre is a member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the American College o Sports Medicine.

COACHING STAFF

MICHELLE BURRELL

Assistant Coach
Third Season at Maryland
Maryland '01

Entering her eighth season with the Maryland softball program, former outfielder Michelle Burrell returned to the Terrapin softball coaching ranks as Gina LaMandre's assistant in 2003. In her first full season as an assistant coach, Burrell helped lead the Terrapins to a 27-18 record and the third-best winning percentage in program history. In her second season, she helped guide Maryland to its 300th program win and fourth-place ACC Tournament finish.

LaMandre is happy to have an assistant who knows the program as well as Burrell does. "She knows the people and she's just fantastic. She brings a lot of continuity to this program," LaMandre said.

Burrell received many honors during the 2001 season as she completed her collegiate playing career. As the Terrapins' top hitter her senior year, she captured spots on the All-ACC team, Mid-Atlantic All-Region second team, Verizon Academic All-District II second team and Terrapin Invitational All-Tournament team. She also led the team in several offensive categories such as runs scored, hits, doubles and stolen bases.

The center fielder has made her mark in the Terrapin record books, appearing among the career leaders in every offensive category. She ranks first in doubles (40), second in games played (239) and started (239), fourth in hits (183) and triples (3), fourth in runs scored (113), eighth in batting average (.236) and eighth in RBI (77). She was also one of five Terrapins named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team in 2002.

Burrell received a degree in kinesiology from Maryland in 2001.

JILLIAN CALLAWAY

Assistant Coach
First Season at Maryland
Maryland '03

Jillian Callaway, a 2003 University of Maryland graduate and four-year starter for the Terrapin softball team, joined the staff of her former team in August 2004 as an assistant coach.

Callaway comes to Maryland after serving as a softball instructor at Planet Fastpitch in Uxbridge, Mass., for the past year. She has also coached at various area camps, including 5 Star Camp, Maryland Softball Camp and the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation camp.

A standout infielder for the Terrapin softball team from 1999-2003, Callaway finished her career on Maryland's all-time top-10 list for games played (195) and started (189), hits (128), and RBI (63). During her senior campaign in 2003, she started all 45 games and hit .300 with 39 hits. At first base, she led the team with a .988 fielding percentage.

As a student-athlete, Callaway earned the President's Award for Academic Achievement and the President's Cup Community Service Award in 2003 and was named one of the ACC's "Top Six For Service" that same year. She was also named to the ICA Honor Roll from 1999-2003 and to the Dean's List in 2000, 2002 and 2003. Callaway was a Verizon Academic All-District II second-team member in 2003.

2004 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Terps show promise for the future.

Terps Finish Fourth At ACC Championships

- The Maryland softball team opened play at the 2004 ACC Championship tournament against border rival Virginia. The sixth-seeded Terps rallied from a 3-2 deficit in the seventh inning to beat the third-seeded Cavaliers, 5-3. The tournament win was the Terps' first over Virginia in the postseason since 2001.
- The Terps next faced North Carolina, and although they jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the No. 2 seed Tar Heels would eventually pull away for a 7-2 victory.
- Maryland stayed alive at the tournament, however, by powering past first-year program NC State, 6-0. The fifth-seeded Wolfpack was shut out by senior pitcher Monica Cyphert, who also led the Terps at the plate with two RBI.
- The Terrapins' run to the conference crown ended with a matchup against fourth seed and 23rd-ranked Georgia Tech. Despite fighting back from a 5-1 deficit to come within one run in the sixth inning, the Terps fell 6-4.
- Maryland finished the year at 33-27, the program's third-best win total in history.

Cyphert, Lounge and Rizzuto Earn All-Tournament Honors

- For their outstanding efforts at the conference tournament in Tallahassee, Fla., senior pitcher Monica Cyphert, freshman second baseman Keri Lounge and junior third baseman Crystal Rizzuto were chosen to the ACC All-Tournament team.
- The softball program had not had three players named to the all-tournament team since Maryland split the tournament title with Florida State in 1997.
- Cyphert pitched the Terrapins to tournament victories against No. 3 seed Virginia and No. 5 seed NC State. Cyphert maintained a 1.65 ERA in 17 innings during the weekend. She also struck out 13 batters in her four appearances. The senior not only pitched well during her final collegiate stand, but also batted .333 (3-for-9) and drove in four runs. Cyphert also hit her fourth home run of the year while pitching her team to a shutout win over NC State. Her .778 slugging percentage was tops on the Terrapin squad during the tournament.
- Lounge played a pivotal part in Maryland's 5-3 win over Virginia. She went 2-for-4 with a double and scored the game-winning run against the Cavaliers. The freshman kept her offensive output at a high level, with a hit in each of Maryland's next three games. Lounge also drove in three runs for the Terrapins during the course of the tournament.
- Rizzuto earned her second consecutive all-tournament team nod. The junior had a perfect 3-for-3 day at the plate against Virginia and also scored two runs in the Maryland victory. Rizzuto ended the tournament with a .500 batting average (6-for-12) and three RBIs.

Maryland Honored With ACC Sportsmanship Award

- The Terrapins were honored with the Atlantic Coast Conference's Spring Sportsmanship Award. Teams that received the award conducted themselves with a high degree of character and good sportsmanship, as determined by a vote of the league's teams.

Lounge Named To All-ACC Team

- Second baseman Keri Lounge was named to the 2004 Softball All-ACC team. The freshman led the team in hits, doubles and slugging percentage, and tied for the team lead in home runs and RBI. She finished the season ranked in the ACC's top 10 for hits, runs scored, doubles and slugging percentage.
- Lounge was the first Terrapin freshman to be named to the conference team since Keisha Pickeral in 1999. She became just the fourth freshman to receive the honor in Maryland softball history.

Fantastic Freshmen

- Freshmen Keri Lounge and Lindsay Klein not only put together two of the best freshmen years in Terrapin history, but two of the best seasons in program history ever.
- Lounge finished the year batting .318, the second-best average on the squad and best-ever by a Terp freshman. Lounge's 15 doubles tied for the second-best total in Maryland history and tied the freshman record set by Keisha Pickeral in 1999.
- The duo combined for 72 RBI, as they each drove in 36. That total ties them with current assistant coach Michelle Burrell (Class of 2001) for the third-best single-season total.
- The classmates also matched each other's home run totals, as both posted six on the year.

LaManare Hits 300

- Maryland head coach Gina LaMandre collected her 300th career coaching victory in a 10-2 win over St. Francis on April 15.
- LaMandre notched her 100th career win against George Mason (April 28, 1998) and her 200th career win against Princeton (March 24, 2001).
- Under LaMandre's coaching, the Terrapins were the co-champions of the ACC in 1997 and reached the NCAA Regional Finals in 1999.

Untouchable!

- In April 15's doubleheader against St. Francis, Maryland pitchers Monica Cyphert and Elyse Lucas combined to no-hit the Red Flash in a five-inning, 9-0 win. Cyphert pitched four innings and Lucas pitched one to close out the no-hitter.
- The no-hitter marked Cyphert's first since the 2003 season. Her last no-hitter was an individual effort on April 13, 2003, against Coppin State.
- It was Lucas' second combined no-hit effort. She also combined with Liz Gall to no-hit Rhode Island on Feb. 21, 2004.

How Maryland Fared

- The Terps took on a demanding field in the ACC in 2004. The team faced two Top 25 teams in Florida State and Georgia Tech. Virginia also had a tough hitting team that tied with Florida State for the best batting average in the conference. North Carolina received strong pitching from its duo of Crystal Cox and Alison Yin, while NC State offered up strong pitching in the program's first season.
- The Terrapins opened their ACC schedule against NC State. The teams split their conference doubleheader with NC State winning the first game, 5-0, and Maryland taking the second game, 1-0. Abbie Sims held Maryland hitless through three innings in the first game. Aditays pitched her second shutout of the season against the Pack in game two.
- North Carolina swept Maryland for the first time in a conference doubleheader since 2001. Maryland lost its games by scores of 1-0 and 5-3. Monica Cyphert's solo home run tied the second game at 3-3, but the Maryland defense couldn't keep UNC off the board in the sixth inning.
- The Terrapins faced No. 2 Florida State just a day after Virginia broke the Seminoles 23-game ACC win streak. The 'Noles showed up in top form, however, and took the first game 7-0 behind the arm of Casey Hunter. She gave up only one hit for the complete game victory. Cyphert and Jessica van der Linden maintained a pitchers' duel in the second game, with van der Linden coming out on top with a 2-1 win. Maryland's only run came from Lindsay Klein's solo home run.
- The Terrapins rounded out their conference season in a road game against Georgia Tech. In the first game, Maryland was run-ruled by Georgia Tech in the sixth inning, 10-2. In the second game, Aditays gave up only three hits and one run, but the Terrapin offense couldn't manufacture any runs against Tech starter Erin Voeltz and took a 1-0 loss.

ACC SOFTBALL

HISTORY OF THE ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleight, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name officially became the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

On June 30, 2003, conference membership increased to 11 with the announcement that the University of Miami and Virginia Tech had accepted invitations to join the league beginning in the 2004-05 year. Boston College was officially welcomed to the league on Oct. 17, 2003 and will enter for the 2005-06 year.

The Terps celebrate after winning a share of the 1997 ACC championship.

Kiesha Pickeral set the single-season hits record of 1999, helping lead the Terps to within one game of the College World Series.

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

2005 MARYLAND SOFTBALL

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 67 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2002 enrollment was 25,240 undergraduate and 9,561 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 67 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report–business and engineering–both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 18) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 24) were ranked among the top 25. The university also ranked in the top 25 for its learning communities (3rd), first-year experience (12th) and service learning programs (24th).

DR. C.D. MOTE

University President
California '59
Seventh Year

As the 19th president of the University of Maryland, C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. has presided since 1998 over a university that is claiming a well-earned position in the top echelon of research universities in the nation. An internationally-respected researcher and member of the National Academy of Engineering, Dr. Mote is Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He serves on the Technology Council of Maryland, is co-chair of the Potomac Conference of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and heads its Technology Transfer Committee.

Under President Mote's leadership, Maryland has received national and international notice for innovative undergraduate education opportunities, high-impact research and academic programs, outstanding performing arts, and athletes and athletic teams competitive with the best in the nation.

"The future of the state depends on this university," says Mote. "It is the State of Maryland's most important asset." As president, Dan Mote has been determined to make that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with State and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere. The university's progress can be seen in all areas, from its nationally-ranked programs to its success in building external partnerships to its state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs and reputation has climbed steadily. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 17th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, up from 30th in 1998. We currently have 44 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 in 1995.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineering each ranked in the top 20. Our College of Education is ranked in the top 20 nationally and 5 of its programs are in the top 10.

Athletic Excellence

Mote sees athletics as an integral part of the university experience. Indeed athletic success more often than not reflects academic success, he notes. For example, all four of the teams that played in the 2002 NCAA basketball Final Four, including Maryland, are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, the organization that comprises the leading research and academic universities in North America. "That's no accident," Mote says. "Institutions that are committed to excellence tend to be excellent in every endeavor. Our successes in football, basketball, lacrosse and other sports reflects our culture of quality as much as our successes in engineering, business, education and journalism."

Faculty Stature

Dr. Mote believes a university's quality is built by its faculty, and under his leadership, Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. The university recruited a Nobel Laureate in Physics in 2001 and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty). More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

DEBORAH A. YOW

Athletics Director • 11th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 10 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics four years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She was singled out by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She has served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television for 2003 through 2004. The committee, comprised of the ACC's athletics directors, is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the recent, very successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multiyear ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities. Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 10 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $43 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating deb which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate o approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent o all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapir athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percen and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percen during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and othe sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade o athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overal quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA Nationa Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball tean has appeared in the last 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, one of only five programs to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 advancing to the Second Round.
- In football, the Terps wor the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, and followed with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win seasor and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.

Yow with Maryland athletics superstars Boomer Esiason, Bonnie Bernstein and Steve Francis.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championship in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Syracuse, Ohio State and Maryland).

- Maryland was selected as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach. In her second season at the helm, her team drew 13,250 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in his second year.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001 and continues to be a Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades.
- The Terrapins moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2003-04, 12 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play, which earned Maryland a place in the Top 25 national rankings in the USSA Directors' Cup for competitive excellence.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 10 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin men's basketball program, Maryland's Director of Athletics points out, "Our men's basketball team has become one of America's premier collegiate programs under the leadership of Coach Gary Williams and his staff. We are one of only five institutions to advance to the NCAA postseason tournament in each of the last 11 years, and the only team in the ACC to do so."

Summing up the entire athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls"'the three A's of the University ——Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley (right) works with the softball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

Softball Supervisor

DAVE HAGLUND

Associate Athletics Director Varsity Sports

Dave Haglund is in his seventh year on the University of Maryland athletic staff and his second as associate athletics director for varsity sports. He joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University.

In June 2003, after more than five years as the associate athletic director for media relations, he took over as associate athletic director for varsity sports and championships coordinator. Haglund is the sport supervisor for volleyball, baseball, men's golf, gymnastics, softball and competitive cheer, in addition to overseeing the sports medicine and strength and conditioning units. In addition, he coordinates ACC and NCAA championship events hosted by the university.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1996. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (11) and Matthew (8).

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 52nd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 91 national championships, including 47 in women's competition and 44 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 116 times in men's competition and 57 in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in the 2002 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 14 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The 11 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 315-164 for a sterling .647 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

A year ago, the ACC had two teams - Georgia Tech and Duke - in the Final Four for the second time in four years and fifth time overall. In the 20 years of the 64-team field, the ACC has produced 20 Final Four teams, an average of one per year and seven more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 203-96 (.679) NCAA record, including 56 "Sweet 16" appearances and 20 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 56 of the 102 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Since 1990, the ACC - with a 181-173 record - is the only conference with a winning record against ranked non-conference foes.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two national titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure as an all-time high 172 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2004-05 schedule, including a record-setting 261 appearances. ACC teams are slated to make 132 appearances on national television networks and 79 of the league's 88 regular season conference games, including 36 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

This past year the ACC posted a 14-6 mark in NCAA Tournament play with the six losses by a total of 21 points. For the second time in league history, eight ACC teams took part in post-season play and six of the nine league teams were ranked in the final AP and coaches' polls. League teams were 107-24 (.816) against non-conference opponents, 13-12 versus ranked teams, including a 3-0 mark against No. 1 ranked teams. The ACC finished the 2003-04 season with the highest regular season RPI rating ever accorded a conference.

2003-04 in Review

The 2003-04 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 48 national team titles over the last 14 years.

The ACC's 2003-04 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in women's soccer and Virginia in women's lacrosse. Overall, 66 ACC teams took part in post-season play compiling a 101-66-4 (.596) record.

A total of 169 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year. In addition, the ACC produced nine national Players of the Year, two national Rookies of the Year and three national Coaches of the Year recipients.

The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 nationally in 17 sports. In all, 31 ACC teams finished their season with a top 10 ranking.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2004-05 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media Guidelines

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Terrapin Softball Complex may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Amy Mulligan in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7068. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.

Fax Machine: The Media Relations Office has one facsimile machine, located in Room 2725 of Comcast Center, which is available upon request. The fax number is (301) 314-9094.

Terps on the Web: For up-to-date game stories, statistics, schedules and results, and other Maryland athletic department information, please locate www.umterps.com on the Internet.
